

Our Story Timeline

1903

Andersen Corporation was founded as Andersen Lumber Company on August 1, 1903.

1905

Andersen originates the 'two bundle' method. The method allows windows to be assembled onsite in as little as 10 minutes.

1926

Fred Andersen is granted his first patent, involving a specially-cut groove that enables builders to adapt one standard frame for multiple opening sizes.

1932

The master casement window becomes the first completely assembled window unit in the industry.

1952

The Andersen Flexivent® window unit is introduced. Within two years, Andersen's business will double and employees will increase from 500 to more than 1,000.

2000

Andersen 400 Series and 200 Series product lines are introduced.

1999

Andersen becomes the first window and patio door company to win the EPA award as an Outstanding ENERGY STAR® Homes Manufacturer Ally.

1999

Renewal by Andersen opens its headquarters and assembly plant in Cottage Grove, MN.

1991

Andersen invents Fibrex® composite material, combining the strength of wood and low-maintenance of vinyl. Fibrex is 2X stronger than vinyl and exclusive to Andersen.

1966

Andersen invents the Perma-Shield® cladding system that revolutionizes the window industry by creating an entirely new category of wood windows called clad-windows.

2001

Andersen adds storm doors, custom windows, and entry doors to product offering by acquiring EMCO Enterprises and KML Windows Inc.

2002

Exclusive strategic relationship with The Home Depot begins.

2005

Eagle Window & Door is acquired, leading to the E-Series product line available today.

2008

Andersen introduces 100 Series windows and doors.

2008

Andersen introduces A-Series windows and patio doors.

2022

Andersen invests in transparent solar technology developer, Ubiquitous Energy, the world leader in transparent photovoltaic technology that converts light into electricity.

2018

The introduction of the patented Easy Connect Joining System.

2018

Andersen acquires Heritage Windows and Doors, a manufacturer of custom, high-quality aluminum windows and doors.

2017

Fenêtres MQ Inc., a luxury window and door manufacturer, is acquired by Andersen.

FENÊTRES MQ INC.
LUXURY WINDOWS & DOORS

2013

Andersen acquires Weiland Sliding Doors and Windows, further expanding into the specialty big doors segment.

*When 100 Series products were tested against five leading competitors' painted vinyl window products.